Teijo National Park & the ironworks villages

The surroundings of the Teijo ironworks villages offer a wealth of experiments and recreation the whole year round. The maritime nature creates a spectacular setting for active holidays, and the idyllic ironworks villages of Mathildedal, Teijo and Kirjakkala take you on a fascinating journey through the centuries.

Located right next to the old cultural landscape, Teijo National Park offers the whole family plenty to do in its varied, wilderness-like nature. The area is equally perfect for one-day hikes and longer treks.

The Teijo region is also known for the historic Teijo Manor, the smallest stone church in Finland, and the ski resort and golf course. Newer additions to the area include a chocolate shop and Mathildedal Manor with a sourdough bakery, restaurant, and a shop, all found in the charming village of Mathildedal.

Visit the ironworks villages in summer by bus

In the summertime, demand responsive transit is available from Saturday to Sunday on the route Salo-Teijo-Mathildedal-National Park. The demand responsive transit lines must be ordered in advance at least one hour before the departure time. When placing the order, you must state the pick-up point, whereas all the bus stops along the route serve as drop-off points. For more information on summer transit, visit www.salokyyti.fi or check the Matkahuolto journey planner service. Orders: www.salokyyti.fi or Mon-Fri from 12:00 to 3:00pm at the number +358 (0)2 778 7716.

Are you longing for a boat trip?

At Lake Matildanjärvi in Teijo National Park, you can enjoy boating in an easy and safe way. Rent a vehicle of your choice – a rowing boat, canoe, kayak, or SUP board – and the adventure is ready to begin. The trip around Lake Matildanjärvi is approximately 4–5 kilometres by boat or canoe. Isoholma Island is a perfect rest stop, as it offers a campfire site, a lean-to shelter and a dry toilet – or you can choose one of the four other rest stops and campfire sites located on the shores of Lake Matildanjärvi.

Travelling by water offers a whole new perspective even on familiar landscapes, and the calm and sheltered lake provides a safe place to try out a new hobby. If you are interested in fishing, you can take a boat or canoe straight to the best fishing spots! You can also go rowing or paddling at Lake Hamarinjärvi which is located in the northern part of the park. Boats, single and double kayaks, and SUP boards can be rented in Kirjakkala ironworks village.

Teijo National Park

In Teijo National Park, the peace and solitude of nature meet the modern-day life and handicrafts traditions of the historic ironworks villages. The ironworks villages offer a direct access to the varying sea, lake, and marshland landscapes of the national park, where you can go hiking, paddling, and fishing. You can enjoy Teijo on a simple day visit or top the experience off by spending an unforgettable night sleeping under the stars in the national park or by choosing one of the charming accommodation options in the ironworks villages.

The entire beer selection of the Village Brewery is available only in the brewery's beer shop.

Mathildedal Village Brewery – beer brewed in the village

In Mathildedal ironworks village, there is an artisan brewery with its own beer shop and a small tasting bar. You can experience the entire beer selection of the Village Brewery at the tasting bar and buy your favourite village beers from the beer shop.

The Village Brewery's philosophy is simple and traditional: the aim is to brew the best beers in the world with a unique village twist. The labels tell stories about the villages, and the names of the beers, and the illustrations on the bottles are also inspired by the villages. This way, a part of our village is always present in our beers.

Come and enjoy local beer in the village!

The beers brewed in our village can be enjoyed with food or as such, and we take the natural beer seasons into account.

Teijo ironworks village

The idyllic Teijo ironworks village brilliantly combines diverse natural beauty with cultural heritage and a vibrant village community. The immediate proximity of the sea, the 18th century manor milieu, the rolling, forested landscape of Teijo National Park with its rocks, lakes and rapids, and the versatile range of services, culture and events provided by the village all come together to make Teijo a unique destination.

Culturally and historically the most significant regional sights are found right in the middle of the village: the Teijo stone church, the rococo-style Teijo Manor with its outbuildings, and the old blast furnace of the Teijo ironworks. Just a stone's throw away lies the fairytale-like Sahajärvi Strict Nature Reserve that is known as the pearl of the national park.

All year round, there is much to see and experience for the entire family; art exhibitions at Teijon Masuuni, handicrafts and Christmas markets, Teijo's Midsummer festival, and the Teijo Old Time Market, just to name a few.

Kirjakkala ironworks village

Kirjakkala is located close to the trail network of Teijo National Park and is situated perfectly between two lakes and the sea.

The log buildings of Kirjakkala ironworks village date back to the 19th century, and they have been restored to their original state.

Teijo National Park offers a fantastic setting with its trails, mushrooms and berries, beaches, and campfire sites.

A TIP FOR TEIJO NATIONAL PARK

Onnelannummi trail 4 km / 1.5–2.5 hours

The trail starts near the Kirjakkala village. After less than a one-kilometre walk, the Onnelannummi pine heath opens up. There is a reservable camping site that has been built for groups. Signs lead you from Onnelannummi to the Lake Hamarinjärvi campfire site, which is a perfect place to take a break and admire the peace and quiet of Lake Hamarinjärvi. The beautiful trail runs close to the water, but the most spectacular scenery opens up from the Nikkakallio rock viewpoint.

Särkisalo & the sea

Särkisalo is a beautiful archipelago township in southern Salo. Over the centuries, Särkisalo has lived off fishing and seafaring, and the limestone mine has also brought prosperity to the area. Even today, people are drawn to the area by the unique seaside nature, fish-rich waters, and versatile services of Särkisalo.

Särkisalo offers a vast range of recreational opportunities and also services for companies. Särkisalo features different-level cabin accommodation all year round, cafés and restaurants for all tastes, unique banquet venues and functional conference services, a shop, marina services and boat and bicycle rentals. In addition to nature experiences, Särkisalo also offers different events, fishing opportunities, and culture for visitors of all ages. Welcome to seaside Särkisalo!

Villa Nennebo

Nennebo is located in the eastern Turunmaa archipelago on the island of Pettu in Särkisalo. Nennebo features two villas, namely the main building Villa Nennebo and the guesthouse/cabin Lilla Nennebo. The island of Pettu is well-known for its lush greenness and clean, fish-rich waters. Villa Nennebo offers an opportunity to experience the old archipelago atmosphere and enjoy the magnificent sea view from your own terrace, as well as from the living room windows of both villas. Enjoy the time-old steams of our traditional sauna and take a dip in the clear Baltic Sea from our own beach. We have no problems with blue-green algae on Pettu Island. At the Nennebo shore, the maximum draught for boats is 1.5 metres. We also have a two-boat boathouse that can be accessed even with a larger boat. There is room for 14 guests at Nennebo plus 2–4 spare beds.

EXHIBITIONS 2020

25.1.-5.4. TOMMI TOIJA, SELF-IMAGES

Tommi Toija (born 1974) is one of the most well-known sculptors of our time in Finland. His exhibition, Self-images, showcases artwork from the past few years. Tommi Toija is particularly well-known for his ceramic sculptures and installations of sculpted characters. With a baffled look in their eyes and the eccentric world they create, his characters have found their way to the hearts of many people. In addition to the celebrated sculptures, the exhibition presents a series of busts, croquis drawings, and watercolours. According to the exhibition curator Veikko Halmetoja, the artwork evokes empathy in the way that it combines innocence with rebellion, and childhood with timeless humour. Toija is excellent at constructing different spatial experiences, letting the sculpted characters take over the exhibition halls. He creates an immersive environment, encouraging the viewers to identify themselves with the artwork and become part of it. The exhibited works represent the artist himself, but they are also a depiction of today's people marvelling at the world around them.

PLEASE NOTE! Due to expansion work on the building, Salo Art Museum will be closed for the summer on 6 April.

Coming in the autumn YMPÄRI MENNÄÄN YHTEEN TULLAAN TOGETHER – Salo communities in old photos

The exhibition Photographs of Old Salo from 2014 gets a sequel in Salo Art Museum Roundhouse in the autumn of 2020. This trip down memory lane takes us from Salo city centre to the adjoining municipalities – to the villages and communities, where people have worked, celebrated, and lived together. The old photographs tell stories from the early 20th century, depicting work communities and people's hard work in fields and forests, ironworks facilities and factories. They also show how people spent their free time, including sports events and swimming schools, song and dance pavilions, and events from horse races on ice to an air show by the Flying Circus Daredevils of the Clouds. There are photographs of different jointly implemented events and gatherings including many meetings between friends and strangers. Changes are possible.

Open

Tue-Fri 10:00am–6:00pm
Sat-Sun 11:00am–5:00pm
Closed during change of exhibitions.

Admission fee

8/5 €, free for visitors under the age of 18.

Free admission on the first Friday of each month.

Salo Historical Museum SAMU Salo Electronics Museum

Exhibition Made in Salo

The glamour of old radios, televisions, telephones, and monitors.

Industrial production in the field of electronics has existed in Salo since the late 1920s. In Salo, companies such as Salora, Mobira, Nokia, and Benefon have manufactured radios, televisions, walkie-talkies, mobile phones, pagers, monitors, and much more. The "Made In Salo" exhibition showcases the over 90-year-old history of Salo-based electronics companies, including their equipment and production history, technological development, and social and economic significance. The museum displays devices designed and manufactured by Salora, Mobira, Benefon, and different Nokia units, along with production equipment, a production line from the Nokia monitor factory and a production cell from the Nokia mobile phone factory.

Salo Electronics Museum is the perfect place for reminiscing about the old radio your grandparents used to have, what programmes people used to watch on their black and white televisions, and what your first mobile phone was like. The museum also offers a possibility to play old videogames from the 1980–1990s, watch production videos, make a phone call with an old manual land-line telephone, and see familiar TV faces from the 1950–1970s.

Salo is an oasis for sports nuts,
a dream destination for nature tourists,
and an unrivalled site for fishing enthusiasts

Salo Sports Park is an oasis in the heart of the city, Teijo National Park is a place where the peace of nature meets the modern-day life of historical ironworks villages, three international-standard golf courses delight golfers with the longest golf seasons in Finland, and Särkisalo is known for its fish-rich waters. You can enjoy sports and nature all year round and take on activities such as cycling, hiking, skiing, paddling, swimming, horseback riding, and gravity racing. The successful local sports teams and many events organised by the active local sports clubs in high-quality settings offer sport-related excitement and experiences.

Salo Sports Park

Salo Sports Part, located right off Salo city centre, offers a wide range of areas for dozens of different sports and fitness activities, both indoor and outdoor. In total, there are nearly 100 hectares reserved for sports and exercising.

Those interested in spectator sports can head to the Salohalli sports centre located also in the Sports Park, as it hosts top-level games in both basketball and volleyball. In Salo Sports Park, you can also skateboard on the new concrete ramp, swim, go horseback riding, work out at the outdoor gym, take up athletics, ice skate in the ice hall, ski, play golf, go bowling, play tennis, basketball and football, and so on.

In summer 2020, Salo Sports Park will be taken over by the largest junior volleyball tournament in the world, Power Cup. There is also a disc golf course and a neighbourhood sports facility at Uskela school, both just a short walk away from the Sports Park. There is a total of six disc golf courses in Salo.

In Family Park, you can climb up high on the jungle gym and play a superhero. Spin yourself dizzy or reach for the sky in the swings. Make music, build a sandcastle, or have a picnic break. Our popular Family Park is also located in Salo Sports Park. Out of all the parks in Salo, Family Park offers the most variety. The fenced park area within Sports Park has toilet facilities and an accessible play area designed to also suit the needs of persons with disabilities or impaired vision.

Salo Swimming Hall has a 30-meter water slide, a cold pool, and diving platforms (1, 3, and 5 m) that draw kids and young people to the bright and versatile swimming hall. The youngest members of the family have their own kid's pool heated up to 30 degrees, where they can play with water toys and swoop down a kid-sized water slide. The swimming hall organises kids' activities and water gymnastics open to all. The swimming hall also features warm therapy and recreational pools with massage stations, and two 25-metre pools. While on your way to the swimming hall through the Sports Park, you can admire an impressive work of art, namely Pekka Jylhä's gigantic and colourful beach ball.

Cycling in Salo

Salo offers an excellent range of cycling opportunities, which have even improved substantially in the past years. All bikers are sure to find a route to their liking in the Salo area.

Tour bikers will surely enjoy the Coastal Route that takes bikers to the sights of Teijo or around a 200-kilometre route via Bengtskär lighthouse back to Salo.

Off-road bikers can head to Tupuri MTB Park, located just 3 km from the city centre, which – so far – offers ten off-road tracks with different levels of difficulty. Bikers can also drive along the forest roads and paths of the Leh-mijärvi hiking trail to access the routes of Teijo National Park. In the spring of 2020, Teijo Ski & Action centre will host the opening of a brand-new off-road cycling centre, Meri-Teijo Bike Park, with lifts taking bikers up the slopes. There are also several other unmarked off-road cycling trails around the Salo region.

Completed in the fall of 2019, there is now a good-size Pumptrack course in Tupuri, where you can sharpen your bike control skills.

On-road cycling enthusiasts can ride on asphalt roads around Salo, ranging from shorter 50-kilometre tracks to a trail of over 200 kilometres that goes around the entire Salo economic area.

Urban cycling is made easy by the extensive pedestrian and cycle route network in Salo that covers the entire urban area all the way to Inkere and Märynummi.

Ilari Koivusalo,
Habanero Mountainbikers ry.

Thrill of speed at Meri-Teijo Bike Park

The lush, green forest trails of the national parks, the long Coastal Route, and the cosy rest stops in the historical ironworks villages attract cyclists from near and far. But if you are looking for speed and challenges – then your destination is Meri-Teijo Bike Park.

An extensive range of trails and difficulty levels

Meri-Teijo Bike Park, a centre specialised in off-road and downhill biking, will be opened next to Teijo Ski & Action Park in May 2020. The founders Jani Salminen and Valtteri Vainio have wanted to create a versatile cycling destination in Teijo with something for all skills and styles. "The cycling enthusiasts of Salo have been waiting for such a park for a long time. We are excited to say that the wait is finally over," says Jani Salminen.

In the first year, the park will feature 10 different tracks ranging from easy ones to professional and enduro tracks. The easier flow tracks have no rocks or stumps, and they can be rolled down with ease. The tracks vary in length between 400 metres and one kilometre. The more challenging tracks include technical sections and big jumps. "The point of these obstacles is to stir up feelings and make even experienced bikers feel petrified," Salminen warns.

Up with lift, down with speed

The Bike Park tracks can be accessed with the anchor lifts of the Teijo ski resort. The rest is downhill from there, although some pedalling is needed on the longer tracks. Experienced bikers are encouraged to bring their own bikes. The Bike Park rents out off-road and downhill bikes and Fatbikes, and equipment and spare parts are also available. Even though the park is intended for customers of all skill levels, the Bike Park only uses top-of-the-line bicycles. "When it comes to quality, our ideology is to provide services for enthusiasts by other enthusiasts. If you set off with bad equipment, you are headed for a disaster," Salminen explains.

Bikers can choose the tracks they like and come down at their own pace. However, safety comes always first. Helmets are mandatory, and younger visitors must be accompanied by an experienced biker, as the tracks are not supervised. According to Salminen, the suitable age to take up biking is 8–10 years.

Coming up: competitions and international visitors

Meri-Teijo Bike Park is also a stage for professional bikers. Before the park opens, it will serve as the venue for an Enduro Warm-up race, and later on the park will host a Finnish DH Cup race. Finnish Championships are already in the plans for the year 2021.

"There have been many interested bikers particularly from the Turku region, as our Bike Park is the first of its kind in Southwest Finland. Tourists from Southern Europe and the UK have also found this area. There is a lot of potential in Teijo," Salminen believes.

"We have also been talking to Metsähallitus about guided tours in Teijo National Park. The vast landscapes and easily accessible location of Teijo attract visitors from near and far," says Salminen.

Support from a professional

Even Petteri Leivo, Finnish Champion in downhill biking, recognises the biking opportunities provided by Teijo. "The local nature alone draws people here. When we add versatile biking tracks to the equation, we have a recipe for success," Leivo says.

Leivo was raised up in Salo, and he has watched off-road and downhill biking become more and more popular since the early 2010s. He feels that the local biking-related possibilities are increasing: "There is something here for everyone, for professionals and beginners alike."

Leivo knows the entrepreneurs behind Bike Park from before. He feels that the versatility of the park is one of its most important assets. "It is great that the Bike Park invests in a customer-oriented approach. This way, even beginners can easily take up biking," says Leivo.

Nature tourism

In addition to Teijo National Park, Salo has many great hiking destinations where visitors can learn about our rich cultural history and diverse nature. There are ancient trails and culture tracks that tell the story of the early inhabitants of the area. There are also nature trails and rapids where visitors can see birds and plants as well as landscapes shaped by the ice age. We have worked continuously to improve the conditions for camping and hiking in nature, and accessibility has also been taken into account.

Latokartanonkoski rapids nature trail

Located in Perniö, Salo, in Kiskonjoki River, the Latokartanonkoski rapids are the most impressive white-water area in Southern Finland. The fall height of the rapids is almost 16 metres on a 500-metre stretch. The frothing rush of the rapids is breath-taking, particularly during the spring and autumn floods.

There are many signs along the rapids of earlier settlements and human activity in different centuries. The rapids have powered mills, sawmills, ironworks, tilt mills, and distilleries. A crown mill has possibly occupied the spot in the 14th and 15th century, and the ruins of a mill built in 1805 can be admired from the mill bridge. This area is home to various animals and even endangered species, including otters, bats, mussels, European dipper, and salmon fish.

Nature trails run through the nature conservation area and partially on private land, forming a 2.2-kilometre long medium-difficulty trail, which is ideally suited for a short daytrip. The trail takes approximately 40 minutes to walk, and you can find information about the history and nature of the area posted along the way.

The nature trails start from the parking area at the end of the road that turns from the Hästöentie road at Hästöentie 140. Come enjoy and experience the majestic rapids!

Accessible trail at Halikonlahti Bay

In autumn 2019, a section of the Halikonlahti bird trail was turned into an accessible route. The accessible trail is 1.9 kilometres long and it winds along the beautiful shoreline of Viurilanlahti Bay, circling around the tailing pond of the wastewater treatment plant. The trail is even and coated in many places with stone dust, so it is possible to go around even with a wheelchair, walker, or a baby stroller. The departure point for the accessible trail is at Satamakatu 49, Salo. Viurilanlahti Bay has been a well-known and valuable bird-watching site since the 19th century. The trail is not maintained for winter use.

Bergvik nature trail

The Bergvik nature trail is located in the area of the Bergvik activity centre, 18 kilometres towards Helsinki from Salo city centre. There are two marked routes to choose from, approximately three and five kilometres in length. There are guideposts and two lean-to shelters along the trail. Visitors are free to bring firewood from the trail starting point to the lean-to shelter. The Bergvik forests are maintained in accordance with the forest management plan prepared by the Southwest Finland Forestry Centre. Along the nature trail, visitors can pick berries and mushrooms (depending on the season) and enjoy the wonderful diversity of nature. Bergvikintie 43, Salo

Märynummi hiking trail

There is wide variety in the Märynummi hiking trail terrain. The trail is suitable for fit hikers who enjoy a versatile route. The trail includes, for example, forest paths, bogs, rocks, and roads. The length of the marked trail is just over five kilometres. The trail starts at the parking area, just outside Märynummi town centre. Hirvitie 96. There is also an 18-hole disc golf course near the starting point of the hiking trail.

Rikala ancient trail and burial site from the 11th–13th century

This ancient trail (20 min) circles the Rikalanmäki hill and tells the story of the area's settlement and life during the Iron Age. Guideposts along the trail provide visitors with information especially on burial traditions, trade culture and the phases of archaeological research in the area. The stone foundations and cellar depressions of buildings long since gone serve as a reminder of later settlements in the area. In addition to ancient ruins, visitors can also explore Finnish cultural vegetation along the trail. Rikalantie 74, Salo.

Vaisakko grove and nature trail

Bordered by Viurilanlahti Bay, the Vaisakko Nature Reserve on the western shore of Halikonlahti Bay is composed of rocky forests that are typical of the area and of interspersed groves. The area's hardwood forests and massive oaks are unique, and the area is home to many rare fungi and lichen species. Vaisakko is at its best in springtime when the anemones bloom.
www.luontoon.fi/vaisakko

Viitankruunu historical trail

The Viitankruunu historical site contains three impressive burial mounds dating back to the Bronze Age. The burial mounds offer a fantastic view over Halikonlahti Bay. There is a parking area at the start of the trail. The parking area can be accessed from the curve at Merikulmantie 255.

Aneriojärvi nature and culture trail

The Aneriojärvi nature and culture trail is located in Suomensjärvi, near the township of Kitula. The nature trail goes mostly on duckboards, as the area is prone to flooding. A bird-watching tower and a bird-watching shelter built using ancient techniques can be found along the trail. The trail consists of two parts: there is an approximately 1.2-kilometre long nature trail for hiking on the shoreline of Lake Aneriojärvi, and a 7-kilometre cycling route that passes through the local farmlands.

Vuohensaari nature trail

The island of Vuohensaari is located in Halikonlahti Bay, a few kilometres from Salo city centre. Today, Vuohensaari serves as an idyllic recreational retreat. The nature trail consists of 17 theme areas, starting from the Vuohensaari parking area at the end of Satamakatu and then continuing clockwise around the island and ending at the camping area beach. The trail is also suitable for families with children.

Coastal Route – a cycling route

Tour biking is growing constantly more and more popular, and the number of cyclists along the Coastal Route is increasing each year. The Coastal Route starts from Salo and heads out to the beautiful Teijo National Park via three idyllic ironworks villages – Kirjakkala, Teijo, and Mathildedal.

The Coastal Route has been extended, and you can now make your way also to the seaside township of Särkisalo and its selection of idyllic summer cafés.

The route then winds its way via the Strömme Canal to the Kemito islands and continues all the way to Kasnäs. From Kasnäs, you can take an inter-island ferry to the outer archipelago to the villages of Rosala and Hitis, or visit the island of Högsåra. You can also make your way to the fortress island of Örö, where you can explore the area on your bike.

It is also possible to travel by sea from Kasnäs to Hanko – the southernmost point of Finland. From Hanko, you can pedal your way to Ekenäs, and then head North and back to Salo. The total length of the route is approximately 200 kilometres.

Renting a bicycle is easy, as there are many rental outlets along the route. You can rent a bike at one rental point and return it to another. There are bike rental points in Salo city centre, Mathildedal ironworks village, and Särkisalo. www.visitsalo.fi/pyorienvuokraus

Hop on a bike and pedal your way from Salo to the archipelago.

www.rannikkoreitti.fi

Paddling route in seaside Salo

The waterways in Salo offer a unique way of experiencing the history and nature of the region.

The length of the seaside river and sea route (via Uskelanjoki River to Särkisalo) is approximately 55 kilometres, which can be divided, for example, into about 5 hours of paddling on two days.

There are many different ways to organise a paddling trip. You can rent a canoe for your own use or book a guided trip and equipment with an experienced service provider.

Hiking trail Salo-Lehmijärvi-Teijo National Park

Now you can make your way either on foot or by bike along a guided route from Salo city centre all the way to Kirjakkala in Teijo National Park. The trail runs across field and forest landscapes on cycleways, sand and forest roads, and paths. The total length of the trail is 21 kilometres. Interesting sites along the trail include a lean-to shelter, several campfire sites, a fantastic viewpoint and an ancient trail (the route via Viitankruunu).

Due to the length and altitude variations of the route, the trail is classified as medium level in terms of difficulty, which means it is suitable for fit persons with no mobility restrictions. The trail is only available during snow-free season, as it is not maintained for winter use. The trail takes approximately five hours on foot and 1.5 hours by bike. In the summer, the Lehmijärvi swimming beach features a sauna and a kiosk. The endpoints of the trail are close to the services of Salo city centre and Kirjakkala ironworks village. TIPPUKIVITAPAUUS AT THE THEATRE OF SALO

Wordplay, catchy music and contemporary theatre for the children and grown-ups of today!

Tippukivitapaus, or Case Dripstone, is a family musical based on Laura Ruohonen's original poetry book and Anna-Mari Kähärä's music. Tippukivitapaus was awarded as the best play script in 2017 and as the best children's music record in 2018.

Previously known from the Finnish television series Yökyöpelit (Night Owls), supergranny Päätäi Väättäinen receives her first spy mission from the special agent Agenttineri Naru. The brave little bean Seija Soija has left the bean jar to search for adventures, and together with her new friend, the shy Hujoppi, she tries to find the world's best hiding place. They are followed by Tukaani who is learning to fly. On their journey, they meet exciting characters and creatures and make their way through, for example, the nine-star luxury hotel Hiippailuhotelli all the way to dripstone caves deep underground.

Director Johanna Parkkinen

The show premieres on Friday 20 March 2020, and the last performance is on Saturday 9 May 2020.

We recommend the play for over three-year-olds. The duration of the show is around two hours (including an intermission).

Plaza Shopping Centre is located right in the heart of Salo!

According to our customers, Plaza is the perfect-sized shopping centre. It is the living room of the local residents. The vibrant shopping centre wants to stay connected with its customers by organising numerous events and being active on social media.

Plaza is easy to reach. The railway and bus stations are only two minutes away. Plaza offers its customers three hours of free parking in its parking garage, protected from wind and rain. There are four entrances to the parking garage: one from both Mariankatu and Annankatu, and two from Asemakatu. The shopping centre has 750 parking spaces, a third of which are heated. The garage also hosts a car wash and charging points for electric cars.

There are over 50 stores and services in the shopping centre. After a while, it is nice to take a break from shopping and have a bite in one of the charming cafés and restaurants. You can pamper yourself with beauty treatments, acupuncture or different massage services. You can also see a doctor at the Mehiläinen Health Centre, a dental specialist at the Oral dental clinic, or visit a pharmacy.

Plaza is a highly active shopping centre that offers interesting events for the customers all year round. The event themes include, among others, health, children, fashion, price campaigns, hobbies, the birthday of Plaza, and the Christmas season opening. One of the public favourites is the locals' very own dance competition, the humorous Tanssii Tuttujen Kanssa ("Dancing with familiar faces").

Plaza is well worth following also on social media – just to keep up with all the events in the shopping centre. Information about events can be found on the Plaza website at www.kauppakeskusplaza.fi, on the Plaza Shopper mobile app, and on Facebook and Instagram.

Meet & celebrate

Salo is a great place to organise meetings, celebrations and large-scale events. Spend time together and sit down to enjoy a meal prepared just for you.

Meeting participants can focus on business in manors, ironworks facilities or in the countryside, close to nature, where it is easy to escape the workaday world and focus on your own thoughts. For bigger events, there are modern and practical facilities with good connections, which can be easily modified to suit different needs.

The region's various banqueting facilities, manors, farms and villas ensure that there is always a perfect venue for weddings, large family events and smaller group gatherings alike. There are also several churches near the banqueting venues, as well as versatile accommodation options in hotels, farms and cottages, whatever fits the nature of the event.

Swap an expensive life for a rich one

In Salo, you can buy a house for the price of a one-room apartment in Helsinki. The location is excellent – the motorway takes you from Salo to Turku in just over 30 minutes and to the Helsinki region in slightly over an hour. If your job is outside Salo, you can get to work comfortably, quickly and affordably by train, bus or even carpooling – and the commute is still not longer than for those living in the Helsinki region. Furthermore, Salo offers great opportunities for remote working.

“Suomusjärvi has room to live and experience, and to see far.”

From the busy world to the peace and quiet of Suomusjärvi

Sanni Orasmaa is an internationally known jazz singer and vocal coach. Her career in music has taken her from Helsinki to Germany and all the way to the United States. Now the cosmopolitan singer has found a new home in Suomusjärvi and wants to share her love for the area with everyone.

In September 2019, Sanni moved from Espoo to the village of Taipale in Suomusjärvi, to a modern log-house built from trees felled on the same plot.

In the new home, old and new come together. Sanni has a 100 Mbps internet connection, yet she heats her house with wood. “Modern living can be diverse. When I was contemplating the move to Suomusjärvi, my sister wanted me to promise I would not move here in the middle of nothing, beyond the public transportation system. However, in the end I had to listen to myself,” Sanni explains.

In fact, listening to one's own voice is a key part of Sanni's life in the new environment. Sanni offers vocal and performance training through her company SoundByNature. In her work, she encourages her customers to find their own voice in nature. “People usually feel safe in nature, which makes it easier to grasp your feelings,” Sanni says. From her home, Sanni can easily reach her customers in the Turku-Salo-Helsinki area. However, Sanni describes Suomusjärvi as her very own spot: “It is like living in the middle of northern wilderness, yet still close to city life.”

Safety from nature – for herself and for customers

Sanni praises the small and friendly village community of Taipale. She buys local food from her neighbours, and random encounters often turn into long discussions. Sanni is thankful for the people around her, who she can ask for help if need be.

The ancient, prehistoric setting and diverse terrain make Suomusjärvi an even better place to live. “The unique, peaceful atmosphere of Suomusjärvi helps me unwind in my everyday life. The people here respect each other's privacy, but they also value good connections,” Sanni explains.

From the front door to forest tracks or a game of Tennis in Salo

In Suomusjärvi, it is possible to step out the front door and go running or skiing in nature, depending on the season. After moving to the Salo region, Sanni has also rediscovered her favourite sport, tennis. “I often play tennis at the Salo Tennis Centre. The facilities are inviting and playing is more affordable than in the Helsinki region. The level of training is also extremely high in Salo,” Sanni rejoices.

“The best part of Suomusjärvi is that there is room to live and experience, and to see far. Moreover, there is time for encounters, new friends and discussions.”

You can live conveniently in the middle of the city and all its services, close to nature in a single-family house or terraced house, in a pristine rural landscape, in an idyllic ironworks village, or close to your hobby, perhaps right next to a golf course. Even by national standards, Salo Sports Park is a truly unique complex, where it is possible to enjoy dozens of activities from horseback riding to ice hockey and golf. The active association scene in Salo is the perfect complement to the wide variety of hobbies and recreational activities. Teijo National Park, the ironworks and manors, the Salo evening markets and numerous other events attract tourists and also make the residents of Salo more content with their city.

Move to Salo and swap an expensive live for a rich one. Salo offers affordable living, spacious neighbourhoods, short distances and several recreational activities within your reach. In Salo, you can find luxury in everyday life – more time together with your family and a wealth of hobbies to choose from.
